Notes

- A BUSINESS OR RENTAL mileage reminder: Please remember that the IRS specifically prohibits use of any estimates when it comes to business car mileage and you cannot just say that X% of your mileage is business mileage without a record to substantiate this % with an exact calculation. If you don't have a record in the required format, you're not allowed to take a deduction for business car mileage. The record is required to be contemporaneous and in writing and you must individually record every single trip you make for business during the year, with the date, purpose, mileage of each trip. This is not a grey area, and this item is one of the most frequently audited ones.
- B BUSINESS OR RENTAL: If you use your computer or other equipment for a combination of personal & business use, you can only take any deduction for it if you keep contemporaneous written record of business versus personal use, to substantiate your business use %. Use of any estimates is specifically prohibited by the IRS. If you buy a dedicated asset for your business that your NEVER use for personal purposes, this will get deducted. If an asset's business use is less than 100%, please state so explicitly, but only list it if you have kept required records of business use %.
- C STOCK OPTIONS: For each basket of options that got exercised or sold, I need to know, separately: type of options (incentive stock options versus non-qualified stock options versus RSUs versus ESPP), number of units, date of grant, FMV at grant,
  - date of exercise, FMV at exercise, price paid at exercise,
  - date of sale, sale proceeds amount.
  - You won't be able to finalize your tax returns without every detail of this information. Perhaps your employer can provide you with a stock-options related Statement of Taxable Income or another similar statement they prepared for tax purposes.
- D CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS: To take a deduction, you must have a cancelled check or a credit card receipt to support each monetary donation you listed in the Tax Organizer. For charitable contributions of $250 or greater, the IRS requires that you have a contemporaneous written receipt from the organization AND the receipt must indicate the value of any goods or services received as part of the contribution or must state that the amount was $0 if there were no goods or services. Just having a check written to the organization is not sufficient. The IRS requires that you have a compliant-format receipt at the time you file your tax returns.
- E CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS: The IRS expects you to use "thrift store value" for valuing the kinds of items you donated and to keep detail contemporaneous written record of specific item-by-item description value contents of each donation. Do you have contemporaneous written item-by-item record (self-created OK) of contents and their thrift-store values of your donations? It could look, for example, like this: children's shoes 5 pairs $3 each = $15 etc. The IRS has been very vigilant over charitable contribution deductions in the past couple of years, and this is the record they require, in addition to donor receipts. Please confirm that you have required records for each property donation, not just charities' receipts.
- F PERSONAL PROPERTY TAXES: Please look up and tell me vehicle license fee (VLF) you paid with DMV registration renewal during the year. You can use this link https://mv.dmv.ca.gov/FeeCalculatorWeb/vlfForm.do . Forward a printout to me and save a copy for your tax records.
- G MORTGAGE & EQUITY LOAN INTEREST: The 3-rd-party proof of how the proceeds of a loan were used determines how much of the mortgage interest reported on form 1098 is deductible versus not. Generally, interest on a mortgage loan or a HELOC secured by your primary residence or your second home and used directly for the purchase of the house it is secured by, or the construction of the permanent improvements to it, is deductible on the first $750k (all mortgages together) of principal borrowed. There are important differences between the federal and California state tax laws.
- H DEPENDENT CARE: Please confirm that all the dependent care expenses you listed were for childcare (designed by the provider to primarily provide childcare before-, after-school, or day camps) & not for education (designed to primarily provide education). Please note that it does not matter how YOU use the services (for example, a music lesson after school which extends care), it only matters if the program is designed primarily to provide childcare (even though they happen to teach something there) or the program is designed as an educational program, and childcare is how you chose to use it. If designed as an education program, it does NOT qualify you for dependent care credit even if you use it for childcare purposes.
- FATCA: Foreign bank account reporting info: The Bank Secrecy Act (BSA) requires individuals who have a financial interest in or signature authority over a foreign financial account, cumulatively exceeding $10,000 at any time during the year to report the account yearly on or before June 30 of each tax year by filing a Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts (FBAR). The Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) is administering the process and has developed an electronic filing system that will accept the FBAR. It is now mandatory that FBARs (formerly Form TD F 90-22.1) be filed electronically for all original and amended filings at a secure Fincen site http://bsaefiling.fincen.treas.gov/main.html.
- J REFINANCING "GRANDFATHERED" MORTGAGE: If your Mortgage balance is over $750,000 check with me before you refinance. If you take out ANY money, even to pay closing costs, so that the new loan is greater than the old loan balance, the amount of mortgage that is deductible will be capped at $750,000.
- K FORGIVEN PPP LOANS: When listing your business expenses, please do NOT list any amounts paid with the proceeds of a "forgiven" or "planned to be forgiven" PPP loan. They are not deductible.
- L VIRTUAL CURRENCY TRANSACTIONS: We do not perform any work reporting virtual currency transactions, unless complete information pertaining to virtual currency transactions is presented to us on a completed IRS form 8949. If you have engaged in any virtual currency transactions during the year, and do not have completed IRS form 8949 to supply to us, we will not be able to prepare your tax return.
- M COLLEGE EXPENSES: Please tell me the breakdown of the $XX that you paid for your child's college tuition & fees, versus required books & required supplies, versus other books & supplies, versus other expenses (please itemize). Please also give me the official COA amounts for the current school year provided by the college's financial aid office.
